Prejean, Sr. Helen

History

Sr. Helen Prejean was born on April 21, 1939, in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. She joined the Sisters of St. Joseph of Medaille in 1957 (now known as the Congregation of St. Joseph) and received a B.A. in English and Education from St. Mary's Dominican College, New Orleans in 1962. In 1973, she earned an M.A. in Religious Education from St. Paul's University in Ottawa, Canada. She has been the Religious Education Director at St. Frances Cabrini Parish in New Orleans, the Formation Director for her religious community, and has taught junior and senior high school students.

Sr. Helen began her prison ministry in 1981 when she dedicated her life to the poor of New Orleans. While living in the St. Thomas housing project, she became pen pals with Patrick Sonnier, the convicted killer of two teenagers, sentenced to die in the electric chair of Louisiana's Angola State Prison. She started to visit Sonnier, as well as maintaining regular correspondence. When Sonnier was executed in 1984, Sr. Helen witnessed his execution as his spiritual advisor, and has been campaigning against the death penalty ever since.

At the request of Millard Farmer, an attorney who had become involved with the final stages of Sonnier's appeals, Sr. Helen started to visit Robert Lee Willie, another death row inmate at Angola, late in 1984. Willie was in the final stages of his appeals, and was executed at the end of December 1984. Once again, Sr. Helen attended his execution. She then became spiritual advisor to Willie Celestine, who was executed in 1987.

Her experiences with both the condemned prisoners and the families of the murdered victims led Sr. Helen to advocate for both groups. She started the support group "Survive" in New Orleans, for families of murder victims. She also became involved with Pilgrimage for Life (later the Louisiana Coalition for Alternatives to the Death Penalty).

By 1990, Sr. Helen was working on turning her experiences into a book, chronicling her experiences with Pat Sonnier and Robert Lee Willie. Dead Man Walking: An Eyewitness Account of the Death Penalty in the United States was published in 1993 and became a national, and then international bestseller. In 1994, Sr. Helen was approached by Susan Sarandon with a view to turning her book into a movie. With Tim Robbins as writer and director, Dead Man Walking was shot in 1995, and released at the end of December that year. In 1996, Susan Sarandon won the Academy Award for best actress for her portrayal of the Sr. Helen character in the movie.

Dead Man Walking was also developed into an opera in 2000, of which new productions are still being staged. Tim Robbins rewrote his screenplay to become a play in 2003, for use with the Dead Man Walking Play Project in schools and colleges, which is an ongoing project.

Sr. Helen's second book was published in 2004. The Death of Innocents: An Eyewitness Account of Wrongful Executions describes in detail the cases of Dobie Gillis Williams and Joseph O'Dell, both of whom Sr. Helen accompanied to execution, and both of whom she believed to be innocent. In the book she talks about their cases and the many flaws in the death penalty system.

Sr. Helen continues to speak and campaign widely for the abolition of the death penalty, and to support death row inmates as a spiritual advisor.

Scope and Content

This collection contains material detailing Sr. Helen's work with death row inmates and her campaign against the death penalty. There is correspondence with three of the prisoners for whom she has been spiritual advisor: Pat Sonnier, Robert Lee Willie, and Dobie Gillis Williams. There is also information about two of the other men she has accompanied to execution: Joseph O'Dell, and James Allridge. Willie Celestine is not represented in this collection. The death row inmates with whom Sr. Helen is currently involved are not represented here.

There is documentation on the process of writing her two books, Dead Man Walking and The Death of Innocents (including drafts, critiques, and editorial comments), the impact that those books had, and the process of turning Dead Man Walking into a movie, an opera, and a play.

Sr. Helen's advocacy work is represented with material about her work with the Louisiana Coalition for Alternatives to the Death Penalty (LCADP) and the National Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty (NCADP), the Moratorium Campaign, the Catholic Campaign, Hands Off Cain, the subject files she collected, her other writings, and correspondence with notable persons, including her letter to Pope John Paul II about changing the Catholic Catechism.

The Ministry Against the Death Penalty (MADP) staff files are also represented. Originating through the ministries of Sr. Helen, the MADP was incorporated in 2001 in New Orleans by the Congregation of St. Joseph. Sr. Helen's activities are coordinated through the MADP Offices. The MADP staff files include many letters about the impact of Sr. Helen's work, as well as the "Ardent Foes". There are also listings of all the events at which Sr. Helen has been a speaker. These files are maintained by Sr. Margaret Maggio at the MADP office.

Lastly there are photographs, awards, memorabilia, videos, and costume pieces reflecting many of the activities and events represented in this collection.

Series Descriptions

Series 001: Death Row Inmates

Date Range: 1972-2004

Scope:

The Death Row Inmates Series contains the correspondence that Sr. Helen had with the inmates for whom she has been spiritual advisor, as well as some correspondence with other death row inmates and other prisoners. The materials reflect Sr. Helen's personal relationships with the inmates named in this series. Researchers should note that there is additional information about Dobie Gillis Williams that Sr. Helen gathered for her book The Death of Innocents. See these files and other files about Joseph O'Dell in Series 4.

Arrangement:

The series is divided into five sub-series named after the inmates or groups of inmates: Elmo "Pat" Sonnier; Robert Lee Willie; Dobie Gillis Williams, Women on Death Row; and Other Prisoners.

The first four sub-series are arranged chronologically.

Restrictions:

Correspondence between Dobie Gillis Williams and his family and friends (box 8A, folders 1-9) is restricted. Access to those materials may be granted by the donor, Sr. Helen Prejean.

Series 001.001: Elmo "Pat" Sonnier

Date Range: 1977-1985

Scope:

The Elmo "Pat" Sonnier sub-series contains mostly correspondence and notes and includes some correspondence with Pat Sonnier's brother, Eddie, serving a life sentence in Angola for the same crime as his brother.

Arrangement:

Folders in this sub-series are arranged chronologically.

Restrictions: None

Series 003: Dead Man Walking

Date Range: 1988-2011

Scope:

The Dead Man Walking series contains information about the versions of Dead Man Walking.

Arrangement:

This series is divided into five sub-series: Book; Screenplay/Production; Impact; Opera; Play Project.

Restrictions:

The Dead Man Walking Play Project was adapted by Tim Robbins and access to the script (Subseries 3.5 Play Project 2004-2009, Box 51, folders 2, 3, and 9) is limited to the institutions that apply to put on the play. As the Play Project is ongoing, this means that reproduction of this script in any form (including digital camera use by patrons) is not permitted.

Series 003.001: Book

Date Range: 1988-1993

Scope:

The Book sub-series documents the entire process of writing the book, from the initial idea, through all the revisions and edits, correspondence and critiques from Jason Epstein at Random House (and many other supporters), to the final proofs for publishing. The drafts of Dead Man Walking are divided into Drafts by Chapter, Revisions by Date, and Proofs. Researchers should note that Dead Man Walking Chapter 2 eventually became Chapter 1, so many of these drafts have different chapter numbers to the published book. Unless otherwise dated, all drafts are from c.1990-1993

Arrangement:

Folders in this sub-series are arranged chronologically when possible.

Restrictions: None

Series 003.005: Play Project

Date Range: 2004-2009

Scope:

The Opera and Play Project sub-series both contain some information about the process of adapting the novel, as well as information about the places that they have been performed. The listing of performances of the Play Project follows the background information about the project, and has been maintained in its original arrangement. The Play Project was adapted by Tim Robbins and access to the script is limited to the institutions that apply to put on the play. As the Play Project is ongoing, this means that reproduction of this script in any form (including digital camera use by patrons) is not permitted.

Arrangement:

Folders in this sub-series are arranged chronologically.

Restrictions:

The Dead Man Walking Play Project was adapted by Tim Robbins and access to the script (Subseries 3.5 Play Project 2004-2009, Box 51, folders 2, 3, and 9) is limited to the institutions that apply to put on the play. As the Play Project is ongoing, this means that reproduction of this script in any form (including digital camera use by patrons) is not permitted.

Series 004: The Death of Innocents

Date Range: 1984-2010

Scope:

This series contains many files, as well as the drafts and proofs for Sr. Helen's second book The Death of Innocents.

Arrangement:

This series is divided into four sub-series: Research Files - Inmates; Research Files - alphabetical by subject; Manuscript; and Impact.

Restrictions: None

Series 004.001: Research Files - Inmates

Date Range: 1984-2005

Scope:

The sub-series Research Files - Inmates is further divided into research material about the three Death Row inmates that Sr. Helen highlights in the book: Dobie Gillis Williams, Joseph O'Dell and James Allridge. Sr. Helen was present at the execution of all three of these men. She visited and wrote to Dobie Williams for many years, and was very involved in his case and with his family. Her letters and details of her relationship with him as his spiritual adviser are in the Death Row Inmates Series. The material here is detailed information about his case that she collected in order to write the book. Sr. Helen became involved with the case of Joseph O'Dell in Virginia at the request of Lori Urs, who was convinced of his innocence and trying to advocate on his behalf. While Sr. Helen did attend O'Dell's execution as his spiritual advisor, she did not have the same kind personal visiting history and correspondence that she did with Dobie Williams. Therefore all the information about O'Dell is contained here in this series, rather than in Series 1: Death Row Inmates. The same is true of James Allridge, a Texas death row inmate with whom Susan Sarandon began corresponding after the Dead Man Walking movie.

Arrangement:

Research Files - Inmates is divided into research material about the three Death Row inmates that Sr. Helen highlights in the book: Dobie Gillis Williams (Boxes 58 through 60), Joseph O'Dell (Boxes 61, 62, and part of 63) and James Allridge (Box 63)..

Series 005: Events

Date Range: 1991-2011

Scope:

These files were largely maintained by Sr. Margaret Maggio at the Ministry Against the Death Penalty (MADP) office. Event file folders are labeled with the name of the main organization or university/college which invited Sr. Helen to a particular event. The majority of the files, however, also contain other events in the same city, same state or in some cases in the same country. Therefore if an organization is not listed on the file folder they may have also requested Sr. Helen's presence in that specific city, state or country and the event information may be included in the folder. The events that have photographs are indicated after the location of the event. For additional photos of some of these events, please see the Photographs series. Congratulatory letters to Sr. Helen from noteworthy people include former President Bill Clinton and Wisconsin Senator Herb Kohl for the Viterbo College's Pope John XXIII Award (Box 77). In addition, a letter from Susan Sarandon is also included (Box 79). She writes about protesting the School of Americas at Ft. Benning in Columbus, GA., and discusses her reaction to how fear is used to justify war after the events of September 11, 2001.

Series 006: Ministry Against the Death Penalty Staff Files

Date Range: 1988-2010

Scope:

Originating through the ministries of Sr. Helen, the Ministry Against the Death Penalty (MADP) was incorporated in 2001 in New Orleans by the Congregation of St. Joseph. Sr. Helen's activities are coordinated through the MADP Offices. These files are maintained by the MADP staff: Sr. Margaret Maggio, Carolyn Clulee, and Alyson Gamble. There are some interviews and articles written by Sr. Helen in this series, however more of this type of material is located in Series 2: Sr. Helen's Files. During processing newspaper and magazine clippings were removed from this series and filed with the other clippings in Sr. Helen's Files.

Arrangement:

The Ministry Against the Death Penalty staff Files series is divided into two sub-series: Organizational Files and Correspondence Received.

Restrictions: None
